

House Resolution No. 3382

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents whose significant contributions of time and energy ensure that local school districts provide students with the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Jeanne Stocker of Marshfield, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction for her work with accounting/accounts payable in the central office of the Marshfield R-I School District, a vocational calling that she will draw to a close on June 30, 2007, in well-deserved retirement after more than twenty-one years of service to the District; and

Whereas, in addition to her accounting/accounts payable duties, Jeanne Stocker was a junior high school office secretary and the secretary for the Board of Education who diligently worked to pass bond issues for school improvements and the construction of the new high school and auditorium, to "train" four superintendents, and to pay millions of dollars of school bills; and

Whereas, Jeanne Stocker is a member and past officer of the Ozarks Area Education Office Personnel, a member of Missouri Area Education Office Personnel, a member and officer of the P.E.O. Sisterhood, a past secretary of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce, and active in church activities, Relay for Life, and Kidney Foundation drives; and

Whereas, Jeanne Stocker is justifiably proud also to be known as the beloved wife of Brad; loving mother of Allyson and Richard Kennedy and of Lauren Stocker, and devoted grandmother of Aydan Kennedy; and

Whereas, retirement promises to give Jeanne Stocker more time for reading new books, spending time at the Lake, collecting antiques, spending time with family members, and traveling with her husband:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered by Jeanne Stocker and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Jeanne Stocker of Marshfield, Missouri.
